Modern Austrian Economics
Archeology of a Revival

Volume One
A multi-directional revival

1. The Kirznerian line of thought

market process theory

Modeling the theory of entrepreneurship

Rationality and Economic behaviour

[This part alone has been reprinted in Littlechild (1990) (ed.) Austrian Economics, Vol. 1).]
2. The Rothbardian line of thought

The defense of Mise’s legacy

Praxeology and normative discourse

Free Banking

3. The Lachmannian line of thought

An Overview

Market process theory

Capital Theory

Causal-genetic thinking

Volume 2: The Age of Dispersal

1. Criss-cross critics
The Misesian praxeology as the only correct Austrian paradigm

Rejoinders

The Controversy on Equilibrium

2. Fellow travellers

Austrians and Neoclassicals

Austrians and Constitutionalists

Austrians and neo-Austrians

Austrians and Post Keynesians

Volume 3: Toward a Broader Paradigm
1. Toward Institutionalism

Methodological Benchmarks

On the compatibility between Austrians and Old Institutionalists

Radical subjectivist approaches to institutions

2. Toward Evolutionism

Austrian Economics as part of the Evolutionist paradigm

Game theory perspective

Austrian theory of the Firm

The cognitive perspective

